EDUCATION J.D. West Virginia University College of Law

Garrett Spiker brings courtroom experience to the table after serving as a judicial clerk for U.S. Magistrate Judge Robert W. Trumble in the Northern District of West Virginia. His work familiarized him with the inner workings of civil litigation and with the lifecycle of litigation. Within his practice, Garrett works with publicly traded and privately-owned energy companies on a variety of civil litigation matters. Additionally, Garrett works with corporate and municipal clients to help them resolve disputes, often before they hit the courtroom. Garrett appreciates the diversity in his practice and strives to be known as a friendly lawyer, who is not afraid to fight.
