

Rex B. Tennant | Environmental Chemist

PHONE (304) 672-4100
EMAIL rex.tennant@steptoe-johnson.com
EDUCATION B.S. West Virginia University

Rex Tennant is the Environmental Chemist for Steptoe & Johnson PLLC with more than 22 years' experience. Rex has experience in regulatory interaction, remediation, RCRA waste units, and water/wastewater treatment. He also has significant experience in preparation of NPDES permit applications and renewals (individual and general) for manufacturing and commercial clients; Spill Prevention Control and Countermeasure plans preparation; Best Management Practices/Storm Water Pollution Prevention plan preparation; Groundwater Protection Plan preparation; performance of Phase I Environmental Site Assessments; preparation of SARA Toxic Release Inventories and Tier II Reporting; and preparation of reports for above ground storage tank installation and closure.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Individual NPDES permit applications and renewals for multiple manufacturing clients

Chemistry reviews of raw materials, intermediates, and products for compatibility and fate/transport assessments

SARA Toxic Release Reporting determination through knowledge of chemistry

Spreadsheet preparation for Discharge Monitoring Reports and other electronically submitted data

Experience with West Virginia Electronic Submission System for environmental compliance project use

WORK EXPERIENCE

2020 Steptoe & Johnson PLLC
1997-2020 MSES Consultants, Inc.
1979-1996 Chemist, Lab Manager, Lab Director, Vice President, Sturm Environmental Services
1975-1979 Chemist, U.S. Army Environmental Hygiene Agency

MEMBERSHIPS AND AWARDS

PROFESSIONAL

American Chemical Society