

Overview

The Steptoe & Johnson Energy Litigation Team is one of the largest and most diverse industry-specific litigation practices in the United States. More than 60 Steptoe & Johnson litigators represent energy clients throughout the nation, with our highest concentration of litigators centrally located in the major producing oil and gas regions in the U.S.

Representative Experience

- As lead counsel, successfully defended claims in excess of $250M regarding allegations of contract breach, fraud, and tortious interference in a natural gas measurement dispute
- As lead counsel, prosecuted a claim in excess of $24M on behalf of a coal operator in an eminent domain matter that went to verdict in a jury trial
- Represented an oil and gas exploration company in state court litigation regarding public road easement and gravel use on fee lands in western North Dakota
- Represented oil and gas exploration company in a contract dispute involving oil and gas lease overriding royalty assignments covering lands in northern Colorado
- Litigated cases involving breach of lease agreements, breach of implied covenants, right-of-way disputes, injunctions against landowners, royalty disputes, and all types of energy-related cases in Colorado, Wyoming, West Virginia, Texas, and Pennsylvania
- Positive Supreme Court decision regarding the interpretation and application of the contractual indemnity obligation pursuant to the Texas Oilfield Anti-Indemnity Statute
- Defended a major energy company in a Clean Water Act citizens' suit alleging wastewater contamination from selenium and conductivity
