Overview

At Steptoe & Johnson our clients come first and providing excellent legal support and counsel is part of our commitment to them. Our 500+ attorneys and other professionals across 18 offices are licensed in over 30 states. In the event that our geographic reach does not extend to the areas where our clients need us, we rely on trusted relationships with organizations that can supplement our legal service and geographic reach. Through these networks, Steptoe & Johnson clients have access to needed legal resources, providing them seamless counsel with a national and global reach.
